Fensterwald
7/1/90

Tarasoffs (Russian + wife) according to Classified tapes in National Archives

233 JFK 000443 Side 1 – Boris Tarasoff – Translator at CIA station in 1963.
Two + two

* 1st Conversation – LHO inquiring how to get into Soviet Embassy – "anyone who speaks English" "No" "Call back later" – Did he identify himself? No – just wanted to talk to someone

[2nd Conversation was much longer]

CIA asked Tarasoff to try to identify caller –

* 2nd long conversation – Singled out as important – also in English – Mrs. Tarasoff worked on it – Urgent – Speaker gave his name – No comments about "poor Russian." No editorial comments – Person did not want to stay in Mexico or return to US – Wanted financial aid to get out of Mexico – Went to Cubans + Russians for financial aid – He said he was broke – Said nothing about CP by giving info.
"Cool individual" "Determined – "Angry"
Don't know to ~~[illegible]~~ whom LHO was talking –
Original + two copies –